Abel wants to be a chef.

Abel was brought to El Sauzal by his father in 1995. His father also brought his 3 siblings because he knew he was unable to care for them. Their mother struggled with postpartum depression and was abusive to the children. For the first 3 years the children were at the orphanage, their father visited. He has since stopped coming to see them. Abel is now a vibrant young man and a wonderful friend to everyone at El Sauzal.
